

NATIVE AMERICAN SOCIETIES

Guiding Question:

Answers from Video:

Additional Evidence/Examples

What is the overarching theme or takeaway that contextualizes this unit?

What was the significance of maize domestication and cultivation?

- Age of Exploration
- Columbian Exchange

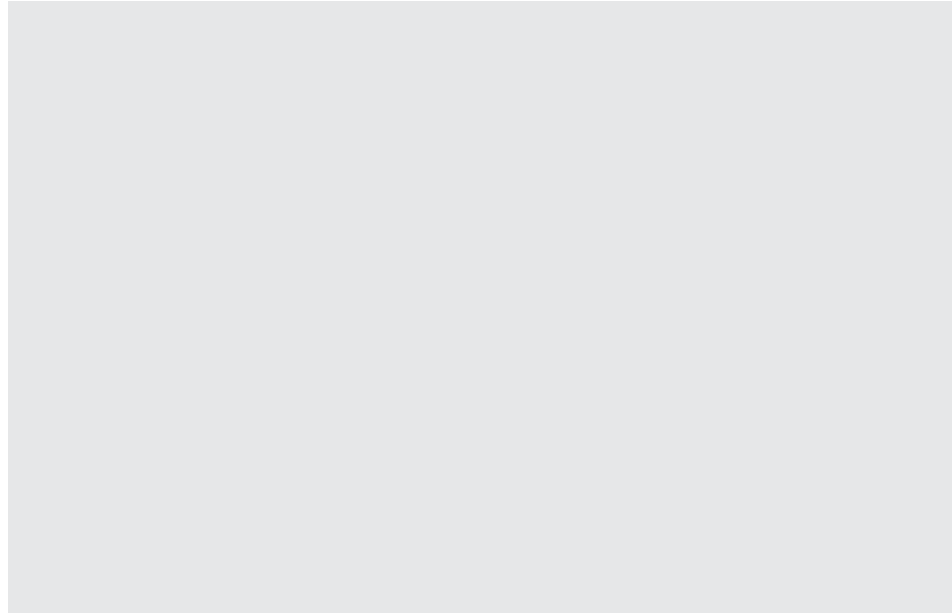

- Maize often grown alongside squash and beans in Three Sisters Farming.
- Maize was so important to Indigenous societies that many had deities and rituals associated with maize.

NATIVE AMERICAN SOCIETIES cont'd

Guiding Question:

Compare and contrast the different regions of North America with regard to native societies and their environments.

Answers from Video:

Additional Evidence/Examples

- Northeast: Wampanoag, Pequot, Narragansett, Lenape
- Southeast: Creek, Chickasaw, Seminole
- Mississippi River Valley: Choctaw, Natchez
- Great Basin and Great Plains: Shoshone, Lakota, Cheyenne
- Pacific Northwest and California: Nootka, Washoe, Yurok

HERE COME THE EUROPEANS

Guiding Question:

What factors facilitated and motivated European exploration?

How did the 3 Gs shape early European colonization efforts? Consider how these factors shaped Spain's establishment and maintenance of their colonies.

Answers from Video:

Additional Evidence/Examples

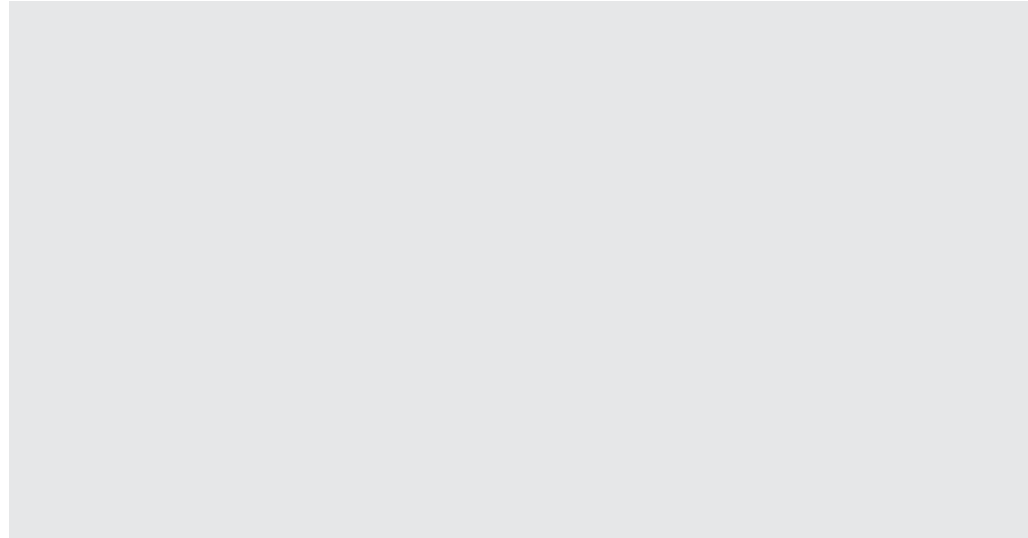

- Mineral wealth and trade aided shift to capitalism
- Portuguese exploration of African coast
- Spanish conquest of Aztec and Inca
- Racial categories like peninsulares, criollos, mestizos, mulattoes
- Requerimiento
- Mines of Potosí
- Spanish treasure fleet

COLUMBIAN EXCHANGE & CULTURAL INTERACTIONS

Guiding Question:

What were the effects of the Columbian Exchange in the Old and New Worlds?

Answers from Video:

Additional Evidence/Examples

- Cassava becomes staple crop in Africa
- Chocolate becomes luxury in Europe
- Influenza, measles, malaria also transferred to New World
- Syphilis to Old World
- Tobacco grows popular in Old World

COLUMBIAN EXCHANGE & CULTURAL INTERACTIONS cont'd

Guiding Question:

Answers from Video:

Extra Info/Evidence:

How did differing worldviews between Europeans and Native Americans shape their early interactions and understandings of one another?

Provide examples of how Europeans and Native Americans borrowed from one another to create syncretic (blended) cultures.

How did new cultural interactions shape patterns of resistance and debates about treatment of non-Europeans?

- Disputes over land and resources would contribute to future conflicts between colonists and Indigenous groups.
- Establishment of missions to convert and subjugate Native Americans
- Adoption of Indigenous terms such as canoe, hammock, moccasin
- Allied tribes helped Cortes defeat the Aztec
- New Laws attempted to reform the encomienda system.