

ANSWERS GROWTH OF CONSERVATISM

Guiding Question:

Answers from Video:

Additional Evidence/Examples

How did a desire to return to traditional values shape Reagan's conservatism?

Belief that the upheaval of the Civil Rights Movement, feminism, and the counterculture caused chaos and destroyed traditional values.

Desire to reemphasize white, Protestant, male-dominated culture with traditional gender roles

Rise of Evangelical Christian movement and Moral Majority, emphasizing family values. Formed the pro-life movement to challenge *Roe v. Wade

- Barry Goldwater
- Election of 1964
- New Right
- Heritage Foundation
- William F. Buckley
- National Review
- Black Power
- Affirmative action
- Anti-war movement

Why did conservatives want to reduce the size of the federal government?

They felt government intervention through things like the New Deal and Great Society caused problems rather than solutions.

- Libertarianism
- Neoliberalism

How did Reagan's economic policies (Reaganomics) reflect conservatives' goals and beliefs about government?

Supply side economics focused on addressing supply rather than demand to promote economic growth.

Emphasis on deregulation, tax cuts, lower government spending to leave businesses with more money to invest, creating jobs and productivity and therefore trickling down to everyone else

- Stagflation
- Supply-side economics
- Milton Friedman
- Monetarism

ANSWERS GROWTH OF CONSERVATISM *cont'dGuiding Question:

How did Reagan implement these economic ideas during his presidency?

Answers from Video:

Economic Recovery Tax Act cut taxes, which contributed to growing wealth inequality

Cuts to spending on social programs but increases in military spending

Deregulation in energy, banking, transportation, media in order to reduce cost burdens on businesses

Additional Evidence/Examples

- Tax Reform Act 1986
- 1981 Air Traffic Controllers Strike

What debates emerged between liberals and conservatives?

Debates over free trade, including NAFTA; Some liberals argued it would lead to outsourcing and job loss. Conservatives argued it would promote free-market growth.

They debated social welfare programs, including healthcare reform under Clinton. In 1994, Newt Gingrich's Contract With America called for an overhaul of the welfare state and to continue Reagan's policies of deregulation and small government.

- Labor unions
- Environmental concerns
- Maquilas in Mexico
- Christian Coalition
- Balanced budget
- Rainbow Coalition
- Tea Party
- 2008 Recession

ANSWERS SOCIAL & CULTURAL CHANGES

Guiding Question:

Answers from Video:

Additional Evidence/Examples

What accelerated globalization after 1980?

Neoliberal policies that emphasized reduced trade barriers, deregulation, privatization; Other states like China and the UK adopted liberalizing economic policies to promote growth.

Improved communication tech like computers, the internet, and cellphones; These innovations eased communication and business across the globe.

- World Trade Organization
- International Monetary Fund
- Shipping containers
- Automation

What were the major effects of globalization?

Changes in the distribution of work and manufacturing, with the U.S. increasingly shifting to knowledge work based on specialized services; Manufacturing was often outsourced to countries with lower labor costs, leading to a decline in manufacturing work and labor unions.

Growing income inequality even as economic productivity increased

- Outsourcing
- Rust Belt
- Buy American campaigns
- Farm Aid
- Wall Street

How did internal migration impact American society?

Political power shifted to the Sunbelt as more people moved to southern and western states, specifically bolstering conservatism.

Silicon Valley and California in general became major economic and tech centers. Growth of prestigious universities like Berkeley and Stanford

Increase in suburban development and the growth of cultural movements like hip hop, with Atlanta becoming a major center

- Air conditioning
- Space and defense industries
- Urban sprawl
- Atlanta, Charlotte, Phoenix, Dallas, Houston
- East and West Coast hip-hop

ANSWERS SOCIAL & CULTURAL CHANGES *cont'dGuiding Question:

How did international migration impact American society?

Answers from Video:

Growth of immigration from Latin America and Asia, many of whom filled low-wage jobs and sent money back home to family

Debates about how immigrants fit into American society. Some argued America was a melting pot of blended cultures, others argued for an embrace of multiculturalism instead of assimilation.

The assimilation debate centered on programs like ESL, with some opponents arguing that it impeded assimilation. Proponents argued it prevented non-English speaking learners from falling behind as they learned English.

Additional Evidence/Examples

- Remittances
- Immigration Reform and Control Act (1986)
- Sanctuary cities
- Immigration Act 1990
- The House on Mango Street
- The Joy Luck Club

ANSWERS A NEW ERA OF FOREIGN POLICY

Guiding Question:

Answers from Video:

Additional Evidence/Examples

What were the causes of the end of the Cold War?

Reagan's strong, anti-communist rhetoric helped reframe the Cold War.

Increased military spending, including the Strategic Defense Initiative; Soviet attempts to keep up with military spending exacerbated their economic issues.

Negotiations and diplomatic meetings like the Geneva Summit aimed at reducing nuclear weapons and diffusing tensions. The SALT treaties reduced munitions and the INF Treaty mandated the destruction of certain missiles.

The Reagan Doctrine increased U.S. military interventions to go beyond containing communism and directly challenge it. U.S. aid to Afghan rebels in the Soviet-Afghan War further drained Soviet resources .

Gorbachev's political and economic reforms that made the Soviet Union more open and less likely to use military intervention; Soviet satellites were emboldened to call for reforms and even demand independence.

- "Evil Empire" speech
- Poland Solidarity Movement
- 1989 revolutions in Eastern Europe
- Boris Yeltsin
- Brandenburg Gate Speech

How did US foreign policy shift after the Cold War?

The U.S. emerged as the sole superpower and focused on protecting its interests.

The U.S. intervened in the Gulf War against Saddam Hussein to protect access to oil, forcing Iraq to withdraw from Kuwait after Operation Desert Storm.

- 24 hour news coverage (CNN)
- Operation Desert Shield
- NATO expansion
- Humanitarian aid and interventions (Balkans, Somalia, Haiti)

ANSWERS A NEW ERA OF FOREIGN POLICY cont'd

Guiding Question:

Answers from Video:

Additional Evidence/Examples

How did the rise of terrorism shape US foreign policy?

Some regimes and groups in the Middle East resented U.S. involvement in the region, as exemplified in the September 11 attacks.

The U.S. launched the War on Terror to eliminate al-Qaeda and Osama Bin Laden. This led to the U.S. invasion of Afghanistan and then Iraq after Bush claimed Iraq had weapons of mass destruction.

- 1983 Marine Barrack Bombing
- US embassy bombings in Kenya and Tanzania (al-Qaeda, 1998)
- USS Cole bombing (al-Qaeda, 2000)
- Guantanamo Bay

How did the threat of terrorism affect domestic policies?

The Patriot Act greatly increased the government's surveillance powers and collection of meta-data, leading to debates about right to privacy.

The Department of Homeland Security was created to prevent future attacks. TSA expanded to secure airports, heightening airport security.

- Islamophobia
- National Counter terrorism Center
- FBI